DEDICATION

As always, this work is dedicated to the entire Suburban Senshi fan community, without whom I would have probably dropped the project aeons ago. You all have literally changed my life. You rock.

Naoko Takeuchi, Akira Toriyama and every other author whose continuity we have pillaged is hereby thanked for their involuntary contributions to this fanfic and for creating the worlds we have enjoyed playing in for almost two decade.

AUTHOR'S NOTES

This collection includes the “Suburban Senshi S” and incomplete “Suburban Senshi Super S” comic series that ran on the site from around 2008-2009.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

For 14 years Doctor Xadium has been the creator and mad steward of the ever-growing Suburban Senshi metaverse, including its OC-only spinoff universe. He is also the co- author of *Warriors of Legend: Reflections of Japan in Sailormoon*, and the guy who came up with the idea for Wikimoon. He lives with his two cats and Waifu, who all have knives in their hands apparently.
